State Issues.

The Convention, at its late session, by its action on the basis of representation and upon the Stay Law, contributed a good deal to put a stop to or discourage any partizan or sectional issues in this State upon two very exciting subjects. The settlement of the basis of representation, upon a safe compromise, takes out of the approaching canvass one source of division and sectional strife. We are glad of it, as nothing, at present especially, should arise to alienate and divide one section of the State from the other. We are one, and our interests are similar; nothing, therefore, should arise to separate us, but every thing should be done to bind us together with hooks of steel.

The Stay law obliges the Legislature so to direct its action, that nothing shall be done to interfere with its operations earlier than the session of 1868-9. It also closes the question of repudiation, if any are disposed to agitate that question, until that period. Any disposition therefore to agitate that exciting and damaging question, will be purely a work of supererogation, without the remotest chance of effecting any thing but evil, and only evil. As debtors by the force of the Stay law will be exempted from all threats or injuries from that question, for the sake of our own credit and character, both at home and abroad, every good man in the State should discourage every attempt to agitate that question.

It is perfectly clear that many of our people, in particular sections, are hopelessly in debt, and rendered positively unable, by the effects of the war, to discharge it. Yet an early resort to the immoral and ruinous policy of repudiation may prevent or defeat any safer or more legitimate resort for the relief of the people.

There is then really nothing in connection with State affairs, which ought to disturb the quiet of the approaching canvass. North Carolians ought not at this juncture to be divided upon any question, either State or National.—Our safety and future welfare depend upon our unanimity. Only one question can with propriety divide us, and that the great National question of restoration.

Strange as it may appear, there are Radicals enough in North Carolina. Professedly, almost all of that stripe claim to be supporters of President Johnson and his policy. This mask must be torn from them. Every man should be made to stand out in his true colors. We must be either for the President and his policy throughout, or we are against him. There is no middle ground to stand upon. We are either Radicals or Conservatives—either for the President or for the Radical Congress. If we are for a Constitutional Union and for President Johnson we must be against the Congress, and if for the Congress we are against the President. Which will you choose?

Southern Lands.

We have several times urged upon the people of this State the propriety of selling their surplus lands. We have made, at the same time, the suggestion, that a proper discrimination should be observed as to the class of persons to whom sales should be made.

There are positive reasons why our lands should not be sold to Emigrant Associations or speculators. The object, in selling, should be to secure permanent settlers, of good character, and good farmers. The future welfare of the State will depend greatly upon the class of immigrants coming to it. Her recuperation, at an early day, can only be effected by a more thorough and a more skillful cultivation of the soil, and the development of her mineral resources. But in introducing to our midst a new population, great care should be observed in admitting those whose example would be pernicious to our social, moral and political interests.

We observe that the Richmond Whig intimates, that there are deeply laid plans, among the Radicals of the North, by which the whole complexion of Southern society is to be changed by the introduction into the South of Northern teachers and preachers and Radical emigrants, thro' the agency of the Emigrant Associations. Our people would therefore do well to keep their eyes open to efforts of this sort. It is only in this way that very great evil may be prevented, by offering no inducements to vicious people who seek the political, social and moral subordination of our people to their own purposes and aims.

CONCORD FEMALE COLLEGE.—The examination at this institution came off last week. The exercises, says the Statesville American, exhibited "the efficiency and ability of the Professor,—one of the best in the nation." Ex-Gov. Vance delivered a most admirable address to the young ladies.

The State Elections.

We advertise the people of North Carolina again, and we wish them to stick a pin there, that the late Convention,—for it is now as dead as Julius Cæsar,—determined to change the time of the annual election for Governor and members of the Legislature from the first Thursday in August to the third Thursday in October, and fixed the time for the ratification by the people of a Constitution re-written entire, with several important amendments, on the first Thursday in August next, giving the people only about thirty or forty days to consider whether or not they will accept the amended Constitution.

In consequence of the want of mail facilities, portions of the people of the State can scarcely have ten days for its consideration. A portion of the delegates, who voted for this measure, by which the new Constitution will certainly run the hazard of defeat, were not influenced by mere partizan considerations. The friends of the new basis of representation were anxious to secure, in the new election, the benefits of the change effected in the new Constitution. The advocates of opposition to Gov. Worth took advantage of this desire, on the part of the Western members, and effected a change in the time of election, for the purpose of arranging and perfecting that opposition, thus subjecting the people of the State to the alternative of accepting the changes effected in the organic law of the State at short notice, or rejecting it entirely, and putting them, at a time when all desire quiet and harmony, to the necessity of passing through perhaps a heated, and, we fear, angry canvass for a period of four months.

It is understood that the Holdenites, or, as our quondam friend, the Marquis de Fontainbleau, preferred to call them, the rams and the rammees, held frequent cancuses during the session, in order to effect a more perfect organization, but, from various causes, and perhaps to escape the bad odor of the Convention, deferred final action to a later period.

Various opinions exist as to the course of the opposition. Some are of opinion that the principal leaders are wholly indisposed to run opposition to Gov. Worth, preferring to try their strength upon the Lieut. Governor. We think otherwise.

In the meantime, we call upon the friends of Gov. Worth to move promptly and energetically in holding County meetings, and in bringing out, at an early day, the strong men for the Legislature. The next Legislature is an important one. It should be not only "unmistakably loyal" but unmistakably conservative, and decided in its opposition to Radicalism of all grades and colors.

U. S. Senators.

The Richmond Examiner, in noticing the aspirations of Forney for the U. S. Senatorship, very truly remarks, "the breed of Senators has wofully degenerated of late." There is now and then in the Senate a man of real ability, but it is so mixed up with partizan trickery and fanatical idiosyncracies, that the truly great men have vanished from its halls. Reverdy Johnson is almost the only U. S. Senator now in that body who reminds one of its former dignity and ability. Proper legislation and statesmanship will hardly show their heads in that body until such men as Graham, Sharkey, A. H. Stephens, Perry, of S. C., H. V. Johnson, and other Southern Senators, have their places open to them.

The President's late Message.

As we have heretofore stated, the late message of the President to Congress fell like a bomb-shell in the Radical camp. Its effect upon Radical sympathizers, South, who have been emboldened in their course by the impression in some way created,—but which we denounced as unfounded from the first,—that the President was disposed to compromise with the majority in Congress upon the basis of the Howard amendment, has been no less startling. Under that false impression they have gone so far in their advocacy of the Radical scheme, that it is impossible for them to retreat; so that they are now openly located, where they have all along really, but covertly, been,—in direct antagonism to the President.

The National Intelligencer has the following, in reference to the effect of the message upon Congress:

"The Radical leaders in Congress were much chagrined at this Executive message, and muttered "curses, not loud but deep" while they questioned the right of the President to enter a protest to their proceedings. Unfortunately they had themselves laid the trap in which they have been caught. They earnestly desired to avoid a veto message on these amendments. They had attempted to sneak them before the State Legislatures for ratification without incurring the publication of the objections they well knew would be offered them by the President. It was for this very purpose that they were passed as a "concurrent" resolution. Conscious, however, of the very questionable validity of their action, they feared that the Executive Department might choose to ignore the Congressional action not submitted to the President, as required by the Constitution. Impelled by this fear, on the 18th. inst., five days after the passage of the amendments by Congress, they adopted a resolution requiring the President to transmit them to the Governors of the several States. This resolution was in itself an impertinent dictatorial assumption. It would have been easy for Congress to have otherwise ascertained that the amendments had been transmitted, as desired, by the Secretary of State, in his ministerial capacity, two days before the passage of this resolution, which was evidently concocted in a spirit of insulting bravado, to show to the country that the legislative department had concluded to dispense with the concurrence of the Executive in the most important subjects of legislation. This piece of impertinence defeated the particular purpose of the Congressional party in passing the amendments in the form of a concurrent resolution, in order to avoid any expression of Executive disapprobation. It has also elicited an exposure of the falsehood industriously circulated, that the President approved these amendments. It afforded a just and proper occasion for the President to furnish Congress and the country with the information that the amendments had, on the 16th. inst., been transmitted to the several States by the Secretary of State, and that such transmissal was "purely a ministerial act, and in no sense whatever committing the Executive to the approval and recommendation of the amendments," at the same time to condemn the action of Congress in adopting such important amendments to the Constitution, while the eleven States most interested were denied representation in Congress, and without affording an opportunity for the people of the several States to express any opinion on the subject. The message of to-day forcibly calls public attention to this fact. The Constitution was originally adopted by the people of the several States. The spirit and intention of its provisions require that all amendments to it shall be submitted to the people for ratification. In this respect the recent proceedings of Congress are directly in violation of the Constitution, in submiting the amendments for ratification to State Legislatures, elected with reference to totally different issues, and which cannot, therefore, be justly presumed to represent the people in regard to important constitutional questions thus suddenly and surreptitiously presented."

The European News.

Contrary to general expectation, the late intelligence from Europe is not of a decisive character. The impression, generally, was, that another arrival would bring tidings of the actual commencement of hostilities between the great powers now marshalling their vast armies upon the plains of the Continent. The hesitancy to begin the bloody drama seems to attach principally to Austria, although, in point of numbers, equipment and discipline, its army is far superior to that of either of the other nations complicated. Preparations, however, for conflict continue on the grandest scale, and the probability is that the feast of blood is only deferred for a few days. The next steamer will doubtless inform us that the sanguinary issue has been joined. When once joined, it may not stop until all of Europe is wrapt in the flames of war.

Brownlow and Radicalism.

Gov. Brownlow, of Tennessee, we observe, endorses entirely the Constitutional amendment recently adopted by the Congress, and has issued his proclamation convening the Legislature of Tennessee on the 4th. of July next, to consider the amendment. It is to be hoped that there is enough conservatism even in the radical Legislature of Tennessee, to defeat this measure. If there is left in that body one spark of manliness or genuine love of the old government, or of self-respect, after the proposition of Stevens' enabling act, they will certainly reject it.

The Gee Trial.

Allusions to the excessive cost of the Gee trial have been made in the newspapers repeatedly. We have authority, not official, for saying that the entire cost to the government does not exceed $20,000. The expenses of witnesses, it is thought, do not exceed $15,000, and the additional expense will be covered by $5,000. This does not include the expenses which fall upon Maj. Gee himself, and which he is poorly able to bear.

Who is He?

Our exchanges, by answering our query, may bring joy to some fond heart, that mourns as dead an unfortunate man whom we saw at the hospital in this place on yesterday. So sad a picture as his anxious face presents, it has not often been our lot to look upon. No account, whatever, can be gathered of him here. When the United States forces took possession of Tallahassee, they found this man in the (then) Confederate hospital, and he has not been heard to speak since. His face ever wears an expression of most anxious care. The moment any one enters his room he turns with an imploring glance, intensified by an expression of fear. Oh! that look can never be forgotten! So full of petition, dread and woe! He wrings his hands incessantly, and seems just uttering some earnest request; but never speaks. Repeated efforts have been made to induce him to write. But he takes the pen, mechanically, as he does everything else, and gazes up into your face with that same earnest look of undefined supplication and dread.

When he is left alone with his food, he eats heartily, and until recently his general health has been good. He is now a little emaciated.—Occasionally he has been known to creep stealthily to his window and open it cautiously.—But in doing so he seems to dread some catastrophe.

We have made considerable enquiry about him in the city and can gather no clue as to the exact time when he was brought to Tallahassee, or from where. One account supposes that he was brought up here a month or two before the surrender from the hospital in Monticello. Another says that some Confederate soldier, who has seen him here, remembers that he saw him at the Natural Bridge fight—that he was then wearing a Major's star, and that he fought very bravely. He supposes that the explosion of a shell near his head paralyzed his speech and deprived him partially of reason.

It is passing strange that he should have remained here so long without being identified. Perhaps Dr. Bacon, at Fernandina, who had charge of the hospital here at the time of the surrender, might give some information. We appeal to any one who can give us information concerning him to do so.

He is a man of commanding figure—we should think six feet and one or two inches in height—if strong and robust would weigh about 160 pounds—seems to be 35 or 40 years of age—has a prominent forehead—dark hair—a large grey eye, and rather prominent nose.—Tallahassee (Fla.) Sentinel.

No political pardons have been granted by the President within a day or two past, although great numbers of applications continue to be received at the Attorney General's Office.

The Washington Chronicle says: "If Davis escapes conviction of treason, it will be because a Virginia jury, loyal to the Constitution and laws of the United States, cannot be found."—Yes! That is to be the cry, in advance.

The Richmond Examiner says that in the event of the adoption of the Howard amendment to the Constitution, of the late fourteen slave holding States, their aggregate representation would be 50 instead of 75, as now.

THE advent of plantation hunting "generals" at the South revives Dean Swift's story about the arrival of William of Orange at Torbay, in 1688, to take possession of the British throne. "Mein beeples," said his majesty to a deputation of loyal Britons who had assembled on the quay to welcome him, "mein beeples, I come here for your goot—for all your goots."

General News.

General Santa Anna is negotiating for the equestrian portrait of General Scott, painted by Troyes, by resolution of the Senate of Virginia.

Prince Alfred has taken his seat in the English house of Lords as the duke of Edinburgh. In the nursery, he led the "opposition."

General Gustavus W. Smith is now engaged in the superintendence of a rolling mill at Chattanooga.

Governor ex-Parson Brownlow is at his home in Knoxville, said to be in delicate health. This statement is clearly erroneous. Brownlow has'n't a particle of either delicacy or decency about him. He may be in bad health—he always is.

The Washington Chroniele, of Thursday morning, says: "The great National Fair will be opened to colored people" to-day, between the hours of 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. Is this not in conflict with the provisions of the civil rights bill Ain't a white man as good as a negro?

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 22.—Lafayette McLaws, ex-General Confederate States army, recently elected clerk of the Superior and Inferior Court of Richmond county, has received an order from Genral Tillson, commandant in this State, forbidding him to hold or exercise any civil or political office. The order is similar to that served o Semmes.

The President has commuted the death sentence of the South Carolinians who were tried and convicted by court-martial in Charleston of killing some negro soldiers while on duty. The evidence against the parties was purely circumstantial.

MR. DAVIS—HE IS LOOKING WELL.—A gentleman from this city, who spent last Friday at Fortress Monroe, saw and conversed with Mr. Davis, to him he represents to be looking unusually well. Mr. Davis' friends and relations have unrestricted access to him. A recent telegram from Fortress Monroe to a Northern paper says that Mr. and Mrs. Davis and family are quite comfortable in the recently fitted up casemate assigned to them, and that "the relaxation by the military authorities of the restraints upon the movements of Mr. Davis is having a very beneficial effect upon his health."

THE CONFEDERATE COLONISTS IN MEXICO.—Recent Mexican advices are to the effect that the hopes of the Confederate emigrants to Mexico are at an end. The Cordova colony, founded by General Sterling Price, and Governor Harris, has be broken up, the houses burnt and crops destroyed by guerrillas of the Liberal party, and the Confederates, about one hundred in number, fled to flee for safety to the city of Cardova. The Liberals are speculating upon the downfall of Maximillian and dreaming of annexation with the United States.

GENERAL LAMPTON.—A correspondent of the Memphis Avalanche, writing from Egg's Point, Mississippi, says "Ten or twelve miles below here, at Lake Washington, lives Lieutenant General Wade Hampton, the second greatest cavalry chieftain of the late Confederacy. He owns extensive plantations upon which he divides his time, devoting himself chiefly to the congenial pursuits of a southern gentleman—books, painting and the case. His former slaves remain with the General, and are represented as contented and industrious."

NEW YORK, June 2.—It has been officially ascertained that four of the Fenian prisoners under examination in Canada were taken in the act of firing upon British soldiers, and they will doubtless suffer death.

A person who has recently visited the Shenandoah Valley, says it is wonderful to see the profusion of cattle and poultry in this "denuded" valley, after the devastation it was said to have suffered. Except the absence of fences in some places, now and then a fortification or burnt barn, no one would suppose an army had been in the Valley. One or two years' crops will replace all the destruction that has been made except loss of life.

Thaddeus Stevens proposes to tax the people of the United States twenty millions of dollars to put down the civil war in Mexico, while he declares our own civil war is not ended.

Judge Thomas, of the Sixth Circuit Court of Virginia, was indicted by the United States Grand Jury at the recent term of Judge Underwood's Court at Richmond, for refusing to admit the testimony of negroes witnesses on the ground that he must be governed by the laws of the State of Virginia in such case, and not by the laws of the United States.

Forney is a candidate for the United States Senate from Pennsylvania, in place of Mr. Cowan. He has entered into the campaign.

The Washington correspondent of the Commerical Advertiser says:

Dr. Craven's statement of the doings of Jeff, Davis, at Fortress Monroe, is published here to-day, and has excited much comment. It is well known that it was not done by the orders of the President or of the Cabinet, or of General Grant: but the responsibility rests on Edwin Stanton, who sent his right hand man, General Layfayette C. Baker, down the Potomac in a special steamer, with written authority to handle the manacles applied.

Those people who are disposed to censure Jeff. Davis or General LEE for the sufferings of the prisoners at Andersonville would do well to bear the above facts in mind. Here was a cowardly outrage inflicted upon the foremost man of the whole rebellion, and neither the President, the Lieutenant-General, nor any member of the Cabinet, except the torturer himself, seem to have known or cared anything about it. Now, is it not barely possible that LEE and others, in the crisis of a terrible struggle, may have been aware of what was done to the prisoners of our army? If they were to blame, in not acquainting themselves with the facts and redressing the stress of a fearful war, what is to be said of our chief executive officers, who, in the hour of triumph, allow the good name of the great nation to be sullied by conduct toward a fallen foe that would disgrace a barbarous power?—*N. CONFEDERATE DEAD.—We are indebted to some of the Ladies connected with the Memorial Association for a list of the Confederate dead,—some five hundred in number,—buried at the rock-quarry near this City. The list will appear to-morrow.

L. D. Pender, Esq., has retired from the Editorial chair of the Tarboro Southerner,—a position which he has ably and acceptably filled. The paper will hereafter be conducted under the style and firm of McNair and Charles, those gentlemen having purchased the establishment.

D. C. CLARK, Esq., is announced as a candidate for the House of Commons from the county of Halifax.

LETTER FROM MAJ. GEE.—The Florida papers publish the following touching letter from Maj. Jno. H. Gee to the Governor of that State, in acknowledgment of the generous remittances forwarded him, on behalf of the ladies and gentlemen of the State:

MILITARY PRISON, RALEIGH, N. C., June 2d., 1866.

His Excellency, David S. Walker,
Governor of Florida:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the communication of your Excellency of the 19th. ult., including drafts for $2,300,—$300 from the gentlemen from different portions of the State, and $2,000, "the nett proceeds of a concert and festival given by the ladies of Tallahassee."

Permit me to offer you, sir, my thanks for the kind words you have been pleased to use towards me and your good wishes for my welfare; and through you my sincere gratitude to the friends who have thus remembered me in my affliction, especially to the ladies, ever foremost to relieve the distresses of the unfortunate.

To know that, in my misfortune, I receive the sympathy and assistance of my countrymen, and retain the esteem of your Excellency, and those who, like you, have known me from my youth, affords me sweet consolation; and strengthens my hope and confidence in that over-ruling Providence in whose merciful hands I have placed my cause.

I am, sir,
Very respectfully and truly,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN H. GEE.

ARRIVALS AT JONES' WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.—Mrs. Mary Wren, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Thos. H. Haynes, Mrs. Haynes, Miss J. Lyerly, Salisbury, North Carolina.

Mrs. Dr. Carnwell, Miss Bettie Carnwell, Chester, South Carolina.

J. Pearson, Miss Annie Pearson, Miss Bettie Pearson, Captain Tutle, Miss Addie Tutle, Joseph Moore, Miss Abbernassee, T. H. Blunt, Miss N. Blunt, North Carolina.

We find the foregoing list of arrivals in the Richmond Examiner of the 25th. We learn that the number of guests at present at the Springs is about fifty,—a very promising beginning. We have no doubt but that, under the auspices of Maj. Hope, every attraction will be presented to secure and retain visitors.

THE LAND WE LOVE.—Owing to some inadvertence at the mailing office, it is only within the past day or two that we have received the May and June numbers of Gen. Hill's Magazine, bearing the above suggestive title. In point of typography, we have rarely seen a handsomer publication. It is almost a fac simile of Blackwood, and many of our readers are doubtless familiar with the neat and compact appearance of its pages. From the very cursory inspection of its contents which we have been able to give, we have been greatly pleased.—There is not, altogether, so much of war annals in the Magazine as we might desire, but the contributions are of a high order of literary merit, and bear directly, as a general rule, upon the interests of "the land we love,"—our own sunny South. It is now, perhaps, rather too late to notice specifically the contents of the last two numbers, but as successive issues appear, we shall take pleasure in doing so.

We are gratified to learn that the prospects of the Magazine are fully equal to Gen. Hill's expectations. We predict for it a larger circulation than any similar periodical has ever obtained at the South.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE.—There will be a meeting of the trustees of this institution on Wednesday, July 14th., held at the College, where the time as well as the place of opening the next session will be determined.

Public Meeting.

A public meeting, composed of citizens of Halifax, Edgecombe and Nash counties, was held at Union Hill, Nash County, on the 16th. of June, over which Capt. J. H. Avent presided, and G. C. Battle, of Edgecombe, and H. B. Barrett, of Nash, acted as Secretaries.

The following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting: Dr. R. C. Marriott, of Nash, J. P. Tyree, of Halifax, P. H. Johnson, of Edgecombe, S. T. Williams, of Nash, and L. L. Moore, of Halifax.

The Committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted. The resolution nominating Gen. Ransom for Governor was received with hearty demonstrations of applause. The best feeling prevailed.

WHEREAS, It has been a time honored memorable custom of our people to assemble in public meetings for the purpose of deliberation and consultation on the affairs of the State and nation; and WHEREAS it is meet and proper in times of gloom and despondency, like the present, that all classes of our citizens should give expression to their views, and take counsel among themselves for the common good; therefore,

Resolved, That we witness with feelings of sorrow and deep regret the slow progress that has been made during the present year in the restoration of North Carolina to the privileges and blessings of the Union and the Constitution.

Resolved, That the impediments which have been thrown in the way of the return of the State to the Union, so far as they are based on the disloyalty of our people, are only imaginary and without cause. Having surrendered in good faith to the national authorities,—having renewed an allegiance to the government of the United States, we are true to our pledges, true to our obligations, and true to our common country.

Resolved, That we ardently desire the return of the blessings of peace, of quietude and of good order throughout the State. We believe the presence of the Federal forces and of the Freedmen's Bureau not only unnecessary, but productive of harm by evincing a suspicion and distrust of our sincerity and good faith, whereas we are fully convinced that our people can be safely trusted in the management of all their relations, whether individual, State or national.

Resolved, That the administration of President Johnson has been eminently wise, patriotic and statesmanlike; we accord to his policy our unqualified approbation and support; we hereby tender him the tribute of our grateful hearts for his noble efforts to uphold, maintain and preserve the principles of constitutional liberty, and we sincerely trust that his just and magnanimous measures to restore the Union may be crowned with success.

Resolved, That while bearing the burdens of the government, we should also enjoy its blessings. It is a cardinal principle, handed down to us by our ancestors, that taxation and representation should go hand in hand, and having fulfilled all the requirements demanded at our hands as a people, we trust the time is not far distant when we will have a voice in the halls of the National Legislature.

Resolved, That as the time is drawing nigh when we will be called upon to elect a Governor, and being anxious to see political unity and harmony prevail among all our citizens, and without intending to disparage the claims of any other distinguished son of the State, we embrace the present opportunity to suggest to the good people of North Carolina the name of Matt. W. Ransom, of Northampton County, believing him to be eminently fitted for that position by his ability, his untiring energy, his lofty patriotism, his ardent devotion to the best interests of the State, and the conciliatory, conservative and commendable course which he maintains towards the General Government.—In presenting the name of Gen. Ransom, we are uninfluenced by any captious spirit, but offer to the people of the State a candidate to whom all true North Carolinians can rally without any sacrifice of party feeling or principle.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Sentinel, Standard and Progress for publication, and that the other papers of the State be requested to copy.

J. H. AVENT, Chairman.
G. C. BATTLE, H. B. BARRET, Secretaries.

For the Sentinel.

PERSON LODGE, No. 113, ROXBORO', June 16., 1866.

WHEREAS, We learn that WM. P. WILKINS, a member of this lodge, breathed his last this day at his residence, and whereas we the undersigned have been appointed by the Worshipful Master to offer suitable resolutions on his death: Therefore,

Resolved 1st., We feel that in the death of our brother Wilkins one has fallen that nature has done much for, he being a man of no ordinary mind, and had it not been for a fatal disease, seizing him when quite young, we feel sure, with proper study, he would have ranked with the first class of intellect in this country.

Resolved 2nd., That we bow with humble submission and resignation to the will of God, in thus removing him hence.

Resolved 3rd., His family have our sympathy and condolence, and we assure them that they will ever find in us friends, to console and administer to their wants.

Resolved 4th., That according to his request we will attend his burial in procession on tomorrow 3 o'clock P. M.

Resolved 5th., That according to usage we will wear the usual badge of mourning for our brother for thirty days, as a token of respect to his memory.

Resolved 6th., That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy furnished his family, and also a copy sent to the Sentinel for publication.

TO BE HANGED.—Charles Parks, a freedman now confined in the jail of this county, under sentence of death for murdering his wife, is to be hanged on Friday next.—Char. Dem.

IMPORTANT ARRESTS.—Some two or three white men and two or three negroes were arrested in this place last week, on the charge of being concerned in robbing and burning a house in this place a few weeks ago.—Charlotte Democrat.

President Johnson has nominated Gov. Pierson, late Ex-Pro. Gov. of Georgia, Minister to Venezuela.

There are at present only twenty surgeons and assistant surgeons of the volunteer force remaining in service, and all of these are in the service of the Freedmen's Bureau.

All the local elections in Southern States show Democratic gains of from fifty to one hundred per cent. over the last vote.

Fifteen thousand negroes have died of the cholera in Guadaloupe, and the sugar crop will probably be short for want of hands to gather it.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Election Campaign in Pennsylvania and Indiana—Constitutional Amendments—The Minority Report in the House.

The News from Washington is unusually interesting. We give below extracts from our exchanges:

THE FALL ELECTIONS—THE CONSERVATIVES VS. RADICALS.

The election campaign in Pennsylvania has opened with much spirit on all sides. The Democratic nomination for Governor will stand, though it was understood that Mr. Clymer would willingly yield in favor of any more available candidates. The office of Governor is of less importance than the choice of members of Congress and of the State Legislature. It is thought the Democrats and Conservatives may elect a majority of the Legislature and of the State representation in Congress.

From Indiana we learn that the Conservatives will probably succeed in the election of members of Congress. New York and other large States promise a change in their representation adverse to the Radicals. The canvass in those States is to be conducted, it is said, on the part of the Conservatives, without reference to any aid which might be derived from the exertion of the Executive power of removal and appointment.

STEVENS' ENABLING BILLS.

The appeal which has been made to the Governors of the loyal States to hurry through the ratification of the article roposed as an amendment of the constitution is not responded to in any quarter. The object requires more deliberation than the dog days will permit. When Congress shall met next December, it will be found that few if any, States have ratified the article. Congress itself may, by that time, have undergone a change of opinion on the subject, prompted, as it may be, by the result of the fall elections.

The article has been submitted to the States, through their respective Governors, who, of course, want to know if that the whole of it, or whether Mr. Stevens' enabling acts are also to be submitted.

Should their enabling, or rather disabling acts, pass the two Houses, the President will have a chance to veto them. That opportunity will not be afforded him. The bills will not pass.

The President is not to be even tacitly committed to Thad. Stevens' constitutional amendment. He speaks, though he might have remained silent—and he speaks plainly and boldly, as he always does. He had no opportunity to veto the measure, but the gravity of the matter was such that a sense of duty impelled him to declare in a special message to Congress that he did not approve of their action. This, perhaps, is as effective a way to deal with the amendment as a veto would have been. In some respects it is fortunate that the matter was not submitted to the President, for his inevitable veto would have surely been overridden, and all its would have caused a delay that could effect no good for the South. As it is, the message will have all the moral effect that the President's opposition must have on any measure. The veto would only have furnished a new occasion for a Radical Congressional triumph and in this view the message is better than a veto could possibly be. The people will read his message—they will weigh its plain teachings—and they will give a veto that no two thirds vote in Congress can put aside.—Richmond Examiner.

"My dear friends," said a returned missionary at one of the late anniversary meetings, "let us avoid sectarian bitterness. The inhabitants of Hindoostan, where I have been laboring for many years, have a proverb that 'though you bathe a dog's tail in oil, and bind it in splints, yet you cannot get the crook out of it.' Now, a man's sectarian bias is simply the crook in the dog-tail, which cannot be eradicated; and I hold it every one should be allowed to wag his own peculiarity in peace!"

NOT BUT THE BRAVE.—At the ball in Quitman a few nights ago, a young Confederate, who had lost a leg in battle, chanced in passing amid the dears to place the extremity of his wooden substitute upon the hem of the dress of one of the most elegantly attired and charming young ladies in the room, by which her skirt was badly torn.

"Sir me," exclaimed her partner—a nice young man, whose experience with balls had never extended beyond the ball room—"that awkward fellow has torn your dress."

"As he! Well, no matter. The best skirt I lost is not too good for a carpet for the hero who lost a limb in defense of Dixie."—Savannah News.

A New Yorker, rich by inheritance, acceded to his wife's desire for a coat-of-arms to put upon the panels of their carriage, and drew a small hand in which was stuck a manure fork, with a chicken upon it rampant. "Why, what is that?" asked his wife, in amazement. "This," said the man of money, "is our family coat-of-arms. My grandfather made his money carting manure; this mound and fork represent his occupation; the cock perched upon upon the fork represents myself, who have done nothing but clap my wings and crow on that dunghill ever since." The carriage still has plain panels.

HISTORY DONE TO ORDER.—On Saturday last the Senate passed a joint resolution for employing some "competent" person to write a history of the "Rebellion," and giving to the Secretary of War the selection of the "competent" person aforesaid! This is a most unusual proceeding. Of course a history gotten up in this manner will be regarded as ex parte—merely a Radical History. Yet the south must pay her part of the cost of it. And Posterity will reject it.—Richmond Dispatch.

The author of "Habit and Man" related an anecdote of an old-fashioned naval captain who committed the offence of dancing without gloves. He had stood up to go through a country dance with a very fine lady, who was shocked to observe that his huge hands were not covered according to etiquette.

"Captain," said his fair partner, "you are perhaps not aware that you have not got your gloves on."

"Oh, never mind, madam," answered the commander, "never mind, I can wash my hands when we are done."

Call for a National Union Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

A. W. Randall, 1st. Assistant Postmaster General, Senators Doolittle, Cowan, and others, forming the Executive Committee of the National Union Club of this city, have issued a call for a National Union Convention of at least two delegates from each Congressional District of all the States, two from each of the Territories, two from the District of Columbia, and four delegates at large from each State, to be held at Philadelphia on the 2nd. Tuesday of August next. Such delegates will be chosen by the electors of the several States, "who sustain the Administration in maintaining unbroken the Union of the States under the Constitution which our fathers established, and who agree in certain propositions, including the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially of the right of each State to order and control its own domestic concerns, according to its own judgment exclusively,—as essential to the balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend; and the overthrow of that system by the usurpation and centralization of power in Congress would be a revolution dangerous to Republican government and destructive of liberty."

The holding of the Convention is endorsed by Senators Dixon, Hendricks, Norton and Nesmith.

Interesting European News.

New York, June 25.

Additional foreign news presents points of importance.

The London Times, of the 13th., says that the diplomatic rupture with Prussia is now complete. The Austrian Minister demanded his passport and was to have left that day.—Such a consummation was to be expected, after the correspondence which passed between the two governments during the last few days.—The dispatch of Count Bismarck went beyond every such document in discourtesy, being of the most vindictive and provoking nature, but it has been replied to by Count Mensdorff in a more guarded style, but in language which shows offended pride and unconquerable resolution.

The Austrian Minister for Foreign Affairs makes a solumn protest against the proceedings in Holstein. He declines all responsibility for consequences and declares that for months Prusssia has taken a position which endangers the former settlement. In conclusion, Count Mensdorff reserves to the Imperial Government the right to take such steps as may be found necessary, since nothing remains for Austria but to defend her honor and guard her rights from contempt.

The portentous intelligence that Garibaldi has reached Conea is announced. Here was the scene of his former brilliant exploits.

The letter of Napoleon to his Foreign Minister was read on the 12th. He says that had the Conference met, France would have repudiated all idea of territorial aggrandizement, so long as the European equilibrium remained undisturbed,—much preferring a good understanding with her neighbors to any territorial acquisition. France would have desired for the Germanic Confederation a more worthy position; for Prussia a better geographical boundary; and for Austria the maintenance of her great position in Europe, after the cessation of Venetia to Italy in exchange for territorial compensation.—Though the Conference has failed, the Emperor thinks that France will not have to draw the sword, but will continue to observe an attentive neutrality. The letter was received with loud cheers by the members, and, on the suggestion of M. Rouher, the Chamber, by a large majority, decided against entering on the debate upon the affairs of Germany and Italy.

Congress,—The New Tariff.

WASHINGTON, June 25.

SENATE.—Mr. Poland offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Public Buildings to enquire whether a tract of land of about 350 acres, adjoining or very near the City, can be obtained at a reasonable price for a public park and a site for a Presidential mansion.—Adopted.

The tax bill was then discussed and passed.

HOUSE.—Morrill, of Vermont, from the committee on Ways and Means, reported the tariff bill, which was ordered to be printed, and made the special order for Thursday.

A resolution was adopted increasing the salaries of certain classes of employees of the House 25 per cent.

The House refused to entertain a resolution calling on the President for information what steps, if any, had been taken to interpose the good officers of the government with Great Britain in behalf of the Fenians lately captured in Canada.

The tariff bill is the longest ever reported, and its consideration in the House is likely to last a whole week. Considerable additions have been made to the free list. Extensive changes have been made in levying specific, instead of ad valorem, duties. The classification of iron is entirely different and much more minute than in the present tariff. Duties on coffee and tea unchanged. On cigars $2.50 per lb., and 50 per cent ad valorem. On Coal reduced from $1.25 to 50 cts. per ton. Duty on all kinds of iron will be increased. R. R. iron, which now pays 70 cents per hundred, raised to $1. Duty on steel of all kinds will be doubled. The duty on paper has not been changed, but the Internal Revenue Tax has been taken off.—The principal fight on it in the House will be on the Iron, Steel, Lumber and Coal clauses. As a general thing, the wool growers and manufacturers seem to be satisfied with their clause of the bill. Pennsylvania petitioners are highly dissatisfied, though the duty on iron is largely increased.

Fenian Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, June 25.

The Fenian gathering at Jones' Woods, on yesterday, was composed of 10,000 persons.—Stephens delivered an address, in which he handled the leaders in the Canadian affair severely, closing his address by advising his countrymen as to their duties to their adopted country, and the work before them to repair the injuries to Ireland by the late fiasco.

Latest Rumors from Europe,—Liverpool Markets.

NEW YORK, June 25.

The Steamer Moravian has passed Farther Point with dates to the 15th.

It was rumored that Austria had declared war, but later advices do not confirm the report.

The Emperor of Austria, on the 14th., in a speech said that he had done everything and would now have to resort to the sword.

Cotton had advanced half to one penny.—Sales of 7000 bales of middling Orleans. Stock at Liverpool 1,000,000 bales.

The Fenian Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

The President is endeavoring to secure the release of all American citizens now held as Fenian prisoners in Canada. It is believed that the intercession will meet with a favorable response from the British government.

The Proposed Union Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

The Democrats in Congress, with, perhaps, the exception of Harris, of Maryland, endorse the call for the Union Convention in Philadelphia. The restoration of the Southern States to representation is considered by them paramount to all other political ideas.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says, "it has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superceding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no sensation in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the weak of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

A CARD.

Because of affliction and age which renders me incapable of continuing business, I now retire from the Book trade, leaving my entire stock and interest in the hands of Messrs. Branson and Farrer—except the publication of the "N. C. Almanac," which, I trust will be received with the same favor as heretofore.

In retiring, I return my sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage which the public has chosen to bestow upon me during the last half century—the length of time in which I have been engaged in the book trade in this State—and cheerfully recommend to my old friends and patrons, my successors, Messrs. Branson & Farrer, by whom, I am sure they will be satisfactorily accommodated.

Mr. H. D. Coley, so well known to the Book trade and to the public, and so long engaged in business with me will be retained as an assistant in business with Messrs. Branson & Farrer. He invites his old friends to call upon him.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DEROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.
